If You Could Hear Me . . .

I could tell you about real family values; about valuing children and valuing elders; about the unbroken ties that connect ancient families with the families of this generation and all future generations. I could tell you about the healing that happens when children begin to learn the wisdom of the elders. More important, if you could learn to hear me, you could learn about caring for children and about kindness and living in harmony with other people and the universe...
